Coral, a Delaware limited liability company, is owned by Coral Energy Holding, L.P., which is owned by subsidiaries of Shell Oil Company and Bechtel Enterprises Holdings, Inc. Coral is an electricity marketing and trading company active throughout North America, including in the Western Systems Coordinating Council ("WSCC") area, with its principal place of business in Houston, Texas. Coral's headquarters are located at 909 Fannin, Suite 700, Houston, Texas 77010. Coral operates under a market-based rates schedule originally accepted for filing by Director's order issued December 6, 1995 in Docket No. ER96-25-000, as amended by letter orders issued September 9, 1998 in Docket No. ER98-4196-000 and March 24, 2000 in Docket No. ER00-1654-000.

III.

On November 20, 2001, the Commission, pursuant to its Order Providing Guidance on Continued Processing of RTO Filings, 97 FERC ¶ 61,146 (2001), issued a notice inviting interested persons to file comments with respect to the types of entities that might best perform wholesale market activities. The Commission requested that such comments focus on a particular geographic region of the United States, rather than upon energy markets generally, and address the question of how wholesale market activities be apportioned to the extent these activities are shared or coordinated among separate organizations within a regional transmission organization ("RTO") region. By a ratenotice issued April 10, 2002, the Commission established a due date of May 13, 2002 for interventions and protests in the above-referenced proceeding for comments relating to Western markets. This due date was extended to May 29, 2002 by Commission notice issued April 17, 2002.

IV.

As stated above, Coral is a marketer of power and energy -related services to customers located throughout the United States, including the WSCC. Coral supplies power to, and/or manages the power supply of a number of customers located in the WSCC area, including acting as a scheduling coordinator for generators and municipal utilities in the State of California. Coral has an immediate, direct, and substantial legal and economic interest in this proceeding which cannot be adequately represented by any other party. Coral's intervention in this proceeding is therefore in the public interest.

WHEREFORE, Coral requests that it be permitted to intervene in this proceeding with full rights as a party.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Jacquelyne M. Rocan
